INTRODUCTION

The county of Kent is home to some of the most attractive scenery and renowned locations in Britain.

We at Millwood Designer Homes have rightfully paid homage to this by creating 18 exclusive, traditionally styled homes that intertwine perfectly with their unique surroundings in the village of Sutton Valence, Kent.

LIVING AT THE NURSERIES

The Nurseries has the benefit of convenient local stores, there are also two local pubs to choose from; The King's Head and The Queen's Head. Looking further afield, The Plough Inn and The Potting Shed are located in neighbouring Langley. With lots to choose from, residents will never be stuck for a place to unwind.

The Nurseries itself is an exclusive new development comprising a mix of two, three, four and five-bedroom terraced, semi-detached and detached homes. Acknowledging the areas architectural heritage, the homes combine traditionally designed exteriors, whilst offering well-appointed contemporary living accommodation.

Nestled within an attractive landscape setting, the homes will be interspersed with green open space, encouraging a strong sense of community for residents.

PREMIUM VILLAGE LOCATION

Once known as ‘Sudtone’, Sutton Valence is a small village (8km) South East of Maidstone, Kent. Enriched with superb examples of Tudor architecture, alongside characterful cottages, this traditional destination is the ideal place to call home.

Sutton Valence Village

Sutton Valence has a desirable surrounding area. Nearby the historic village of Headcorn (4.6 miles) offers a plethora of shopping, baristas, dining and socialising opportunities. For extensive retail opportunities, the county town of Maidstone is just 5 miles to the north of the village, with excellent shopping, dining and entertainment.

With the best of Kent’s countryside on your doorstep, hours of fun can be had exploring the local woodland, fields and paths that surround The Nurseries development. The homes are also very close to The Weald of Kent Golf Club and The Ridge Golf Club.

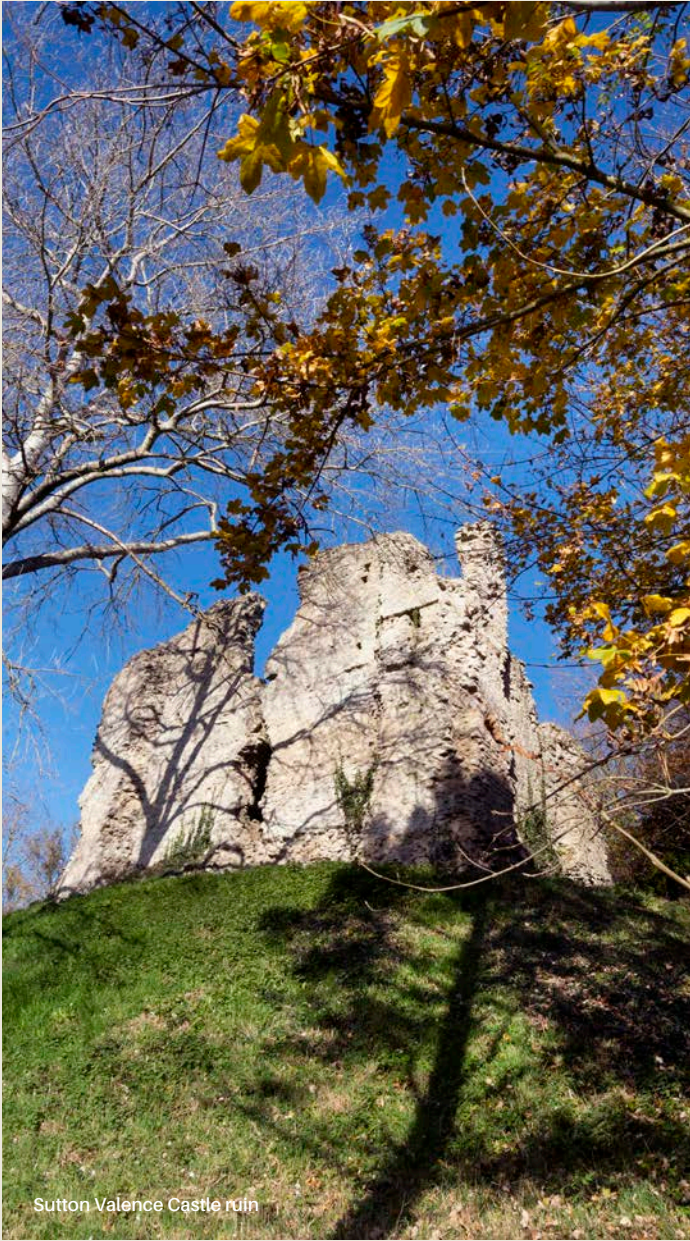

The area is also well-known for its distinguished schooling. Private co-educational schools in the area include; Sutton Valence Pre-School, Primary School and Senior School offering excellent opportunities for children as they grow.
